

Notes for Contributors

(updated in April 2011)

JOURNEYS aims to examine current land transport issues in the areas of policy and planning, development and management of infrastructure, transport innovations and systems, and others that could be of interest to transport professionals.

Papers submitted should not have been previously published or under review by other publications. Otherwise, the author should ensure that relevant written permission from the publisher, where applicable, has been obtained. Upon acceptance by the Editorial Team, all contributions will be subject to editorial amendments. The edited versions will be given to the authors for review and approval prior to publication.

Guidelines for papers:

- The paper should be approximately 2,500 words in length, organised under section headings. All tables, charts and figures should be accompanied by titles/captions.
- The first page of the paper should contain:
 - Title of paper (up to 10 words);
 - Name(s) of author(s); and
 - Abstract (approximately 100 words)
- A passport photo and biographical sketch (approximately 100 words) of the author(s) should be provided at the end of the paper.
- Only 2 authors are to be named per paper, in the order of seniority. Additional contributors may be mentioned in the Acknowledgements.
- Papers should be submitted electronically in Microsoft Word format.
- Separate Excel files should be provided for all tables and charts used in the paper.
- Illustrations and photographs should be submitted separately in an image file format (i.e. TIF, GIF, JPG), with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. All sources and written permissions, if applicable, should also be included.
- Notes may be included at the end of the paper but should be brief
- All references cited in the paper should be included in the Reference List. The author-date system in The Chicago Manual of Style should be used
